South Korea Wants Release Of 9,000 Allied-Held POWs

SEOUL (AP) — South Korea's acting Prime Minister has demanded that Gen. Mark Clark immediately release some 9,000 anti-Communist Korean prisoners still in Allied POW camps because "we must liberate them all."

And the UN commander today released a scathing letter accusing South Korea's fiery President Syngman Rhee of breaking a

Eisenhower Calls Rep. Reed To Discuss Extending Levy

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower arranged a face-to-face showdown today with Rep. Reed (R-NY), chief congressional foe of the President's plea to extend the excess profits tax.

Under present law, the tax expires in 10 days.

Reed is chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, the group that normally must start all tax bills through Congress.

But so far he has not agreed to call his committee together for a vote on the President's proposal, a stern test of Eisenhower's leadership in Congress. Repub-

"personal commitment" not to take unilateral action with ROK forces in the UN Command.

Clark called the release of almost 26,000 anti-Red prisoners on Rhee's orders this week "precipitous and shocking."

Rhee and his cabinet met this morning to study a stinging rebuke from President Eisenhower and government sources said the Cab-net might discuss Rhee's answer.

Eisenhower accused Rhee of violating UN Command authority in ordering the prisoners freed.

Fifty-five more anti-Communist Koreans fled from three UN prison camps Friday night and early Saturday. The UN Prisoner Com-mmand said nine were recaptured.

ONE SOUTH Korean was killed and one U.S. soldier was wounded at a camp near Pusan.

South Korea's Acting Prime Minister Yung Tai Pyun, in a letter dated Thursday, demanded that Clark turn over all anti-Red prisoners still in Allied hands.

"We must liberate them all—preferably . . . in a manner least likely to cause trouble," he said. And Pyun warned:

"I should like to call your attention to the mutual need of refraining from saying or doing anything that might likely provoke passions of the Korean masses, which once let loose may easily go out of control."

Pyun's letter, written after the mass escape of about 25,000 prisoners early Thursday, said: "We regret very much that several scores of prisoners were killed and injured by United Nations guards."

About 26,000 anti-Red prisoners fled from seven UN camps Thursday night and Friday night. South Korean guards, acting on orders of President Rhee, turned their backs as the prisoners escaped.

There was no indication whether Reed would yield. Reed, oldest Republican in continuous service in the House, has never said he would refuse to bring the tax extension to a vote. Nor has he said when or whether he would do so.

GOP leaders apparently have made little headway in their efforts to persuade the determined New Yorker.

Eisenhower urged a six-month extension of the unpopular tax in a special message to Congress more than a month ago. The ways and means committee concluded hearings one week ago today.

Read has insisted the tax prevents business growth, and hence revenue which would be raised by letting it die on schedule.

Chances Fade For New Cut In Expansion Idea

It looks as though the area marked off for annexation north of Circleville, first major step in the city's expansion program, will keep its present boundaries after all.

The large area was trimmed considerably after the City Zoning and Planning Commission first placed a tentative chart of the section before City Council. Then, at Council's last meeting, Councilman Joe Brink called for a meeting to consider another reduction.

Members of Council were to meet with the commission at the planning body's regular meeting Friday night. However, a spokesman for the commission said only two of the lawmakers attended, and that they indicated they didn't intend to press as individuals for a second revision of the annexation chart.

Roughly, the area marked off for annexation extends northward from the corporation line to Dunkel road, and stretches laterally from the city's eastern limits to Route 23.

Council has already given the green light for preparation of the annexation petition, to be circulated among the property owners who would be affected.

Western Drama Beginning Today

An action-packed western thriller by Norman A. Fox begins today on editorial page of The Circleville Herald.

Entitled "Ghostly Boofeats," the western drama unfolds on the Bootjack frontier where Cole Manning rides through danger and gunsmoke to a strange, surprising fate.

Is Manning the rider of the phantom horse with the ghostly hoofbeats? You'll enjoy finding out as you follow the new serial beginning today on page four.

Greek Leaves U.S.; Plans Proper Return

COLUMBUS (AP)—A 25-year-old Greek prepared today to leave the United States voluntarily so he might return legally to the American wife he married five months ago after a courtship by mail.

Alex Kallimanis, who served with United Nations forces in Korea, began corresponding with the former Barbara Beaver after seeing her picture—owned by a GI buddy in Korea.

He went to the Beaver home in Bremen, near Lancaster, to visit after his discharge from service. He obtained a visitor's permit and took a job in Lancaster. In March he and Barbara were married.

When his permit was about to expire, he applied for an extension. But he was told he violated the law when he took a job in this country. At a hearing in Federal Court Friday, Kallimanis formally requested permission to leave the country voluntarily. If this is granted, his wife will ask permission to bring him to this country on a non-quota basis as the husband of an American citizen.

Tiffin Pastor Heads Synod

TIFFIN (AP)—Dr. James E. Wagner, a 53-year-old minister from Lancaster, Pa., today was the new president of the 743,000-member Evangelical and Reformed Church's General Synod.

Previously, Sen. George (D-Ga.), a Senate Foreign Relations Committee member, talked of the possibility of ousting Rhee, saying he had "practically scuttled" true hopes unless the Communists want a cease-fire badly.

At Panmunjom, the Communists asked for an indefinite recess in the armistice negotiations, dealing a blow to hopes for a prompt truce.

The Korean ambassador was not invited yesterday when Secretary of State Dulles called a meeting of representatives of United Nations countries having forces in Korea.

THE SECRETARY and the diplomats conferred about 35 minutes. It was understood they discussed the truce situation and South Ko-

Communists Demand POWs' Recapture, Rhee Subjugation

MUNSAN (AP) — The Reds today angrily told the Allies that if the UN wants a truce it must control South Korea's rebellious government and recapture 26,000 anti-Red war prisoners freed by President Syngman Rhee.

Although the Communists protested violently at Rhee's arbitrary action, they did not rule out an armistice.

But their terms appeared near impossible—the Korean prisoners have melted into the countryside with Rhee's blessing and the split between South Korea and the UN Command apparently was growing deeper.

South Korea's acting prime minister, Y. T. Pyun, made public a letter to Gen. Mark Clark, UN Commander, demanding freedom for 9,000 anti-Reds left in Allied stockades. It was written Thursday, a few hours after the first big break.

PYUN SAID Rhee does not regard recent prisoner exchange terms "equally binding on us" and warned Clark bluntly against "saying or doing anything that might likely provoke passions of the Korean masses, which once let loose may easily go out of control."

At almost the same time, Clark made public a letter written the same day blistering Rhee, and accusing him of breaking recent assurances that South Korea would make no arbitrary moves without consulting Clark.

Rhee's action has cracked the unity of the Allies and the Reds made the most of it.

The Communists listed their demands in a letter handed to the Allied truce delegation in a 25-minute meeting at Panmunjom. Addressed directly to Clark, it ended: "We are awaiting the reply of your side."

The Allied delegates made no answer and the meeting recessed indefinitely at Communist request, subject to call by either side.

In Washington, U.S. officials had no comment, but said they expected a strong protest.

Pair To Face Murder Charges

KENTON (AP)—The Hardin County prosecutor said Friday night the grand jury will be reconvened soon to consider first-degree murder charges against James Tatum, 31, and Lawrence Sawyer, 25, both of Kenton.

Tatum and Sawyer pleaded innocent Friday when arraigned before Mayor Lester Whilholt in the fatal shooting June 9 of Richard Burchell, 24, of Kenton. The pair was bound to the grand jury.

Burchell was shot twice near a Kenton cafe. Rosemary Austin, 18-year-old Kenton girl held as a material witness, said the men had argued over her affections.

Unrest Continues In Soviet Sector

BERLIN (AP)—East Germany's leading Communist newspaper admitted today the Soviet zone is rocked by strikes and disorders and a U.S. general declared the Russians are trying to "Tamp down dynamite."

Maj. Gen. Thomas Timberman, American commander in Red-encircled West Berlin, said the Russians had brought in the major elements of two armored divisions, about 25,000 men of the 1st and 14th Divisions, to throttle rebellious East Berlin.

"These two divisions can tamp the place down for awhile," he told a news conference.

"I am certain that these Russians gunners with their tank muzzles staring down our throats know themselves that this is no solution to the overall problem," he added.

Previously, Sen. George (D-Ga.), a Senate Foreign Relations Committee member, talked of the possibility of ousting Rhee, saying he had "practically scuttled" true hopes unless the Communists want a cease-fire badly.

SING SING PRISON, Ossining, N. Y. (AP)—Julius Rosenberg and his wife, Ethel, walked quietly to the electric chair last night and were executed for the crime of delivering to Soviet Russia the secrets of the atomic bomb.

It was the day after their 14th wedding anniversary.

They were the first non-military convicts in the history of the United States to be executed for espionage.

Neither of the condemned spies talked, nor attempted to talk, as the last moments came.

Both entered the death chamber in Sing Sing Prison—only a few moments apart—with a firm step and a stony face. They were executed shortly before sunset, so that the grim task would be finished before the beginning of the Jewish Sabbath.

Street fights broke out in Paris, and several policemen were reportedly wounded. In London, thousands roved the streets, waving copies of the Communist newspaper, Daily Worker, which carried a single word in giant type—"Murder."

In Dublin, two bottles of kerosene were thrown through the window of the U.S. information office. They did not explode.

But in Ossining, where the prison is located, the night was quiet. Heavy details of police and state troopers, guarding temporary barracks, met no demonstrators.

As the fixed hour approached, two telephone lines were opened between the office of Warden William L. Denno and Washington—presumably to be in touch with the White House and the office of Attorney-General Herbert Brownell.

Vorys Terms Passage 'Vote Of Confidence' For President

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Vorys (R-Ohio) said today the House, by approving intact a $4,998,732,500 foreign aid program, has given President Eisenhower a 2-1 "vote of confidence to go out and make a record around the world."

The final vote upheld committee cuts of $476,000,000 below President Eisenhower's "minimum" budget. The total is $2,600,000 less than recommended by former President Truman.

The House also:

Approved $2,079,689,870 in military aid to Europe, rejecting proposals to eliminate our cut military aid to Yugoslavia, Spain and Portugal.

Approved $305,212,637 in military aid to the Near East and 15 million for Latin America, without challenge.

Approved $1,081,620,493 in military aid to the Far East.

The measure now goes to the Senate. There it may encounter less trouble than was created in the House yesterday by a coalition of Midwestern Republicans and some Southern Democrats. The bill would only authorize funds. Actual appropriations must be voted in perhaps a month—presaging another fight.

The Allied delegates made no answer and the meeting recessed indefinitely at Communist request, subject to call by either side.

On final passage in the House, 119 Republicans, 160 Democrats and one Independent voted for the measure. It was opposed by 81 Republicans and 27 Democrats.

ROSENBERG, 35, wore dark brown trousers, a white undershirt with short sleeves, and low slippers without heels.

He turned, without guidance, to the electric chair and sat down quietly.

Rabbi Koslowe moved to the left of the chair, beside the witness' benches. He kept his eyes on the prayer book. His voice dropped to a whisper. He prayed steadily, and twice kissed the book.

The guards stepped away. A signal was given to the executioner, Joseph Francell, in an alcove to the left of the room.

There were three massive charges of electricity. The first lasted three seconds, the second and third 57 seconds each. He was dead in two and three-quarters minutes.

The humming stopped. It was 7:06 and three quarters (EST).

Two physicians approached with stethoscopes. They listened for a long moment. Then one said, "I pronounce this man dead."

THE BODY was lifted onto the white table and wheeled out of the room.

Rhee's Revolt Dims Chances For U. S. Security Guarantee

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Syngman Rhee's stock has sunk swiftly among U.S. legislators and some express doubt that Congress would approve any mutual security pact with his South Korean government despite the outcome of truce negotiations.

Sen. Magnuson (D-Wash.), just back from a Far Eastern inspection trip, joined today in mounting congressional criticism of Rhee for freeing 25,000 prisoners from United Nations camps. Much comment was critical, but Rhee had defenders also in Congress.

Previously, Sen. George (D-Ga.), a Senate Foreign Relations Committee member, talked of the possibility of ousting Rhee, saying he had "practically scuttled" true hopes unless the Communists want a cease-fire badly.

At Panmunjom, the Communists asked for an indefinite recess in the armistice negotiations, dealing a blow to hopes for a prompt truce.

bear the serious responsibility for this incident."

The letter asked:

"Is the United Nations Command able to control the South Korean government and army?

"If not, does the armistice in Korea include the Syngman Rhee clique?"

"If it is not included, what assurance is there for the implementation of the armistice agreement on the part of South Korea?"

"If it is included, then your side must be responsible for recovering immediately all the 25,952 prisoners of war who are at liberty . . . and your side must give assurance that similar incidents will not occur in the future."

THE REDS repeated their charges that the Allies must have known beforehand of the release and therefore "connived" in the escape.

The letter was signed by Kim Il Sung, North Korean Premier, and Red Chinese Gen. Peng Teh-hu.

An Allied spokesman said North Korean Gen. Nam Il read the letter with a flicker of tenseness, but no other sign of anger was displayed in the conference hut.

Later, Dr. Karl Hong Kui, a South Korean government spokesman, denounced the letter as "false accusation directed at the United States to cause a split between the U. S. and the Republic of Korea."

CLARK'S LETTER to Rhee was short but direct. He wrote that he could "not at this time estimate the ultimate consequences" of Rhee's "precipitous and shocking" act.

Clark said Rhee had personally assured both him and the U. S. ambassador to Korea, Ellis O. Briggs, that he would not take any such action until "full and frank discussion with me" but "your actions today (Thursday) have clearly abrogated these assurances."

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

HARRY BRIGGS

Harry J. Briggs, 72, of New Holland, died at 7:15 a. m. Saturday in Memorial hospital, Washington C. H., following an illness of eight years.

Mr. Briggs was born in New Holland, son of William and Elizabeth James Briggs. He lived in Circleville until five years ago, when he returned to New Holland.

He was manager of Pickaway Livestock Association and the Pickaway Farm Bureau for 23 years. He was a member of Atlanta Methodist church, a Sunday school superintendent for many years. He was a 32nd degree Mason, a member of the Eastern Star and a Shriner. He was the first of a family of 11 children to die.

Surviving him is his widow, the former Bernice Brown, whom he married in 1907; two daughters, Mrs. Alice Critts of New Holland and Mrs. Polly Tilton at home; five sisters, Miss Lilly Briggs, Mrs. J. May, Mrs. Lena Janes and Mrs. Annalee Willis, all of New Holland, and Mrs. Elizabeth Peterson of Frankfort; five brothers, Strader, Warren, Cecil, and Dudley Briggs, all of New Holland, and Bryce Briggs of Circleville; and three grandchildren.

After hearing details of the latest offense, in which rotten eggs were thrown at a car owned by William Rolland of New Holland, Magistrate Root said he was told it was Norris' first offense.

Friends may call in the funeral home after 6 p. m. Sunday.

The Rev. Donald Mitchell, pastor of Circleville Presbyterian church, will be guest minister. He will speak from the theme "God of Our Fathers," taking the text from Deut. 4:13 and Romans 10.

Following the sermon, special recognition will be made to the fathers by Church School Superintendent Edwin Richardson. The Kappa Beta Class will present each father with a gift, Home Builders Class will recognize the oldest father and Merry Makers Class the youngest father. Also, the most-represented church father, as selected by the young people, will be honored.

Recessional hymn following benediction will be "God Be With You."

Church school will meet immediately following the worship service to study a lesson "The Practice of Christian Liberty."

Bible Words To Live By

John 8:12—"Again Jesus spoke to them, saying, 'I am the light of the world; he who follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life.'"

This statement of Jesus is to me a source of quiet confidence. No one wants to walk in darkness. In my boyhood days I reasoned: I am not afraid of darkness, but I do not want to walk in it lest I encounter some unseen danger.

Moreover, my desire was to go forward surely, confidently. Therefore, I wanted light.

But light and darkness with Jesus are figures of speech for significant spiritual realities. Even as a boy I knew this. And in the realm of the spirit, also, I wanted to walk in the light.

When, therefore, the words, "I am the light of the world," came as "addressed" to me, I was ready to listen. And when Jesus said, "He who follows me will not walk in darkness," I was ready to follow. In following, He became real to me, and through the years I have known increasingly that He is Himself the Light of life and the Light of the world.

Episcopal Parish To Meet Rector

St. Philip's Episcopal church will have a special parish family service at 10:30 a. m. Sunday.

There will be a celebration of holy communion and an address by The Venerable David R. Thornberry, Archdeacon of the Diocese of Southern Ohio.

Archdeacon Thornberry will speak concerning the relationship of a parish to its minister. The Rev. Jack C. Bennett, new rector for St. Philip's, will assist in the service.

All members of the parish family of St. Philip's have been contacted by postal card and are urged to be present.

Vacation School To Give Program

This Sunday morning at the regular 10:15 a. m. worship program, Trinity Lutheran church's daily vacation Bible school will direct the service. Each of the five departments will have a special song for the service.

Samples of the children's work will be on display for viewing by members of the congregation.

The Practice of Christian Liberty

Paul writes the Galatians, "For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty; only use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another. This I say, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfill the lusts of the flesh."

Among the "lusts of the flesh" that Paul lists are idolatry, hatred, wrath, strife, envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings and such like, "of which I tell you before, they that do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God."

Brethren, if a man is overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such a one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted. Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ."

Finally, Paul writes, "And let us not weary in well doing; for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not. As we have therefore, let us do good unto all men."

Daniel Example Is Basis For Methodist Rite

The Rev. Robert Weaver will preach the third in a series of sermons on Old Testament characters Sunday in First Methodist church. He will preach on "Daniel, A Man of Influence." William Vigore, ministerial student, will assist in the service.

In the development of the sermon, Daniel will be shown as a man of moral courage, a man who taught by his victory over temptation and not by his stained life.

His early life will be lifted up as one of profound moral courage and conviction. He will be shown as a man who was willing to stand for his principles and loyalty to his faith.

The pattern of envy causing men to plot against him will be shown as parallel to the pattern causing men to undermine men of conviction and faith today.

The old jest that the lions were not able to eat Daniel because he was all backbone has a great deal of truth in it. Even had the lions eaten Daniel, the story would have been just as great in depicting the strength of a man who believed utterly in God.

A trio, composed of Mrs. Harold Denbaugh; Mrs. Larry Graham and Miss Beverly Reid, will sing "I Waited For The Lord." Mrs. Ervin Leis has chosen "Andantino," "Meditation" and "Prayer" for her organ numbers for the service.

Junior High Fellowship will meet at 6 p. m. Sunday for election of officers for the new year.

Presbyterian Young People To Present Service

Worship service at the Presbyterian church Sunday will follow the Father's Day theme: "Fathers And Brethren."

Don Davis, Moderator of the Presbyterian Youth Synod of Ohio and who is just returned from the Synod meeting in Wooster, will share the pulpit with Miss Anne Downing, stated clerk of Youth Synod, and Juanita Hill, delegate to the Synod from Westminster Foundation of Ohio University, Athens.

The choir will sing an anthem: "O Master, Let Me Walk With Thee," directed by Mrs. Clark Will. The congregation will share in singing of the hymns "All Hail The Power of Jesus' Name," "Faith of Our Fathers" and "God of Our Fathers."

At the organ, Mrs. Theodore L. Huston will play "Chimes of St. Mark," "Moderato" and "March of Fame."

Bible study classes will be held in the Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. Nursery service is provided during the worship hour.

At 7 p. m., the Westminster Fellowship Youth group will hold their devotional service in the chapel.

'Jesus' Power' Theme Planned

"Jesus' Doctrine of Power" will be the sermon topic presented Sunday by the Rev. Spurgeon Metzler in morning worship services for Circleville Gospel Center.

An evangelistic service in the church at 2 p. m. will feature a sermon entitled "Until All Be Fulfilled."

The Rev. Paul J. Pappas of Wilmore, Ky., will be guest speaker during a special service at 7:45 p. m. Thursday. The Rev. Mr. Pappas will tell of modern missions in Greece.

Packaged Cake Mixes Are Useful To Homemaker

What's just about every home baker's dream cake? Angel food, of course! But with all the fuss involved—separating anywhere from eight to twelve eggs, deciding whether or not to add water, to say nothing of what to do with all those yolks—many a homemaker is frightened off.

Now comes a packaged angel food mix to add to all the other wonderful time - and - work-saving modern miracles, this one the glamour girl of them all. Two bags contain everything you need, carefully measured and blended, to turn out a downy-textured cake in under ten minutes' mixing time. Just follow the easy illustrated directions on the back of the package, and you'll have a luscious cake equal to a dozen-egg one laboriously made from scratch. To add to this mix's appeal, you're not limited to one flavoring; you can add your own. With the addition of three egg yolks, the mix makes a dandy sponge cake, too.

Plain or frosted, this angel food's a delight. But here are some especially good variations to make it even more heavenly.

Orange Angel Sundae: Prepare 1 pkg. angel food cake mix, according to directions on package, adding 2 tbsp. grated orange rind after last addition of flour. Turn batter into 2 ungreased 8x4x8-inch loaf pans. Bake in moderate oven (350 deg. F.) 30 minutes, or until cake springs back when pressed gently with finger. Cool in pan, upside down, until cold—about 1 to 2 hours. Then loosen cake from sides and center tube with knife; gently pull out cake.

With a sharp knife cut a 3/4-inch horizontal slice from top of cake. Carefully remove center of cake, leaving a 1/2-inch shell. Fill cake shell with Cherry Bavarian Cream. Replace top of cake; chill several hours or overnight. Just before serving, whip 1 c. cream with 3 tbsp. sugar and 1/4 tsp. almond extract; swirl over top and sides of cake. Makes 12 to 14 servings.

Cherry Bavarian Cream: Dissolve 1 pkg. cherry-flavored gelatin in 1 c. hot water. Add 1 c. cold water. Chill until slightly thickened. Place in bowl of ice and water and whip with rotary egg beater until fluffy and thick. Fold in 1/2 c. cream, whipped, and 2 1/2 c. sliced Bing cherries, well-drained.

Angel Tea Cakes: Prepare 1 pkg. angel food cake mix, adding 1/2 tsp. vanilla and 1/4 tsp. almond extract to water called for in package directions. Pour batter into ungreased 13x9x2-inch pan. Bake in moderate oven (375 deg. F.) about 30 minutes. Cool in pan, upside down, resting corners on other pans. Then loosen from sides with knife to remove cake. Spread cake with Cocoa Glaze. When glaze is set, cut cake in 1 1/2-inch strips lengthwise, then cut diagonally across each strip. End pieces will be triangles; inside pieces diamonds. Decorate with candy flowers, silver dragees, if desired.

Cocoa Glaze: Sift 6 tsp. breakfast cocoa and 1 c. sifted confectioner's sugar into small bowl. Heat 2 tbsp. water and 4 tbsp. butter; together, pour over sugar mixture and blend well.

Never go back, they say. But it is poor advice.

The old place can teach you that nothing ever changes much, nor ever really dies.

BAGGAGE LOSS LIABILITY
CARRIED ALL THE WAY to the Supreme Court of the United States, a dispute over liability for loss of a suitcase is won by a Connecticut woman against the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad. The contents were valued at $615, but the company contended it was not liable for more than $25—that a provision in its tariff schedule limited recovery to that amount unless a higher value had been declared in writing and an extra charge paid.

The suitcase disappeared while in the custody of a red cap at the New Haven station. The woman rejected the $25 offered by the company, brought suit, and won a verdict for $615 in the state courts. The railroad appealed to the Supreme Court on the ground that the state court decision impaired federal rights under the Interstate Commerce Act.

Finding that the woman was not given a claim check reciting the liability limitation and was not informed of the tariff provision, the court of last resort upheld the verdict of the lower court.

It may have cost the woman more than $615 to see the dispute through to a finish, but she set an admirable example in sturdy determination. Incidentally, common carriers in general are on notice that they may not evade having to make good actual losses by merely inserting a liability limitation on their tariff schedules.

POOR RICH MEN
LAST YEAR, ABBOTT and Costello, famous comedians, earned $1.75 million from radio, television and personal appearances. Their incomes have averaged near that point for a dozen years. Yet today they are behind in payments to Uncle Sam to the extent of $50,000: From every dollar the pair earns, the government takes 94 per cent. If they are paid $1,000 for a personal appearance, the take-home pay is $60.

While their position in the entertainment field calls for rather lavish living, this is not the cause of their misfortune. They pay $100,000 a year to the boys who write their gags. An agent collects 10 per cent, accountants and tax experts carry off $75,000 for their services. There is travel, entertainment, charity and all the other expenses which come with fame. The net result is two actors with no money.

Having earned $25 million during their joint career, Uncle Sam is now looking over their shoulders, watching for the next payment. There must be a moral to this story. Perhaps it is that the guy who first suggested income taxes—it was Karl Marx—was no dummy, from the politicians' standpoint.

George E. Sokolsky's

These Days

One of the advantages of not writing about every story immediately is that one can wait for the froth to blow away and for the substance to assert itself. The chance remark by President Eisenhower at Dartmouth College caused more excitement than was due it.

No one has burned any books and, if the President indicated that someone had, he was unfortunately in error, although I must say that it would cause little damage to civilization if the pornographic miseries that are being sold to our children on newsstands and in candy stores were burned. Also some of the mystery stories which substitute filthy expressions for skillful narrative could well be burned with little loss to anyone.

But the issue at hand has nothing to do with such crudities. It apparently deals with the millions of dollars that the American taxpayer spends on American libraries scattered over the world as part of our program of psychological warfare. These libraries are sheer propaganda. That is the sole reason for which Congress appropriated money for them. The design was that Europeans and Asiatics should be given an opportunity to read the best that the United States produces in the various fields of literature.

Richard Humphrey, Acting Director of the Information Service Centers of the Department of State, addressed the following letter to Senator Joseph McCarthy which I quote in full:

"In response to Mr. Schine's request of today to state in a simple sentence the purpose of the Overseas Library Program, perhaps the following will suit the committee's needs—the Overseas Library Program exists to reflect American objectives, values, the nature of American institutions and life and to utilize the books and related material to advance the ideas of America in the struggle against Communism."

This is a succinct statement of fact. It clearly defines the overseas libraries as agencies of propaganda. That is what they should be. But how is it possible to fight Communism and the Russians by spending millions of American dollars to set forth the Russian point of view in opposition to the United States and the American point of view?

Secretary of State John Foster Dulles put it clearly when he said:

"My own feeling is that books which are of an essentially propaganda nature, designed to sell Communism and be persuasive in support of Communism, should not be books on which we should expend the rather meager funds which are designed for quite a contrary purpose."

It is true that the McCarthy Committee uncovered the use that the Communists were making of the American overseas libraries, but neither Senator McCarthy nor his committee could remove one book or even a pamphlet from the shelves of these libraries. They had no authority in the matter. The order to remove came from President Eisenhower's State Department as the order to purchase the Communist books came from Dean Acheson's State Department.

NATIONAL WHIRLING
news behind the news

Editor's Note: Every Saturday this veteran Washington correspondent devotes his column to answering readers' questions of general interest on national and international policies and personalities. Questions may be sent direct to Ray Tucker at 6308 Hillcrest Place, Chevy Chase, Md.

WASHINGTON, June 20—"What is wrong with this man, Charlie Wilson?" inquires T. F. of Lansing, Mich. "From all I read in the newspaper, he can't get along with the press, Congress or his own military staff. Why doesn't Eisenhower get rid of this trouble-maker?"

Answer: Stories about Secretary Wilson's inability to get along with the Pentagon newspapermen, with members of Congress and with the so-called military experts are slightly exaggerated.

Every new Cabinet member has these rather unimportant difficulties, and especially a man with Wilson's cutting personality and record of achievement at General Motors. He is a bold individualist surrounded by compromise men.

Naturally, Wilson becomes impatient with them, as he would have with a GM man who promised 3,000,000 cars a year, when Wilson knew that the firm could turn out only 1,000,000.

I feel that Wilson has made many mistakes, largely because he has no talent for public or political relations. If he had had a smart publicity adviser at the Pentagon, he would have made a better impression on and off Capitol Hill. He has been badly advised with respect to his appearances at press conferences, and congressional committee hearings.

But the American people, for their own sake, should withhold judgment on the Secretary of Defense. No man in the United States knows how to produce planes, tanks, trucks, ships etc., in volume and promptly, as he does. Given a chance, he may roll out cold war weapons as fast as he produced cars in private industry.

If he is hounded out of office by political critics, and that is always a possibility, I doubt if any American industrialist would try to take his place. Eisenhower would then have to appoint some political hack or broken-down military figure for the most important job at Washington.

KEE'S STATEMENT—"Twice, in recent speeches," notes G. F. of Woonsocket, R. I., "President Eisenhower has made a disturbing statement. In measuring our current military strength as against that of World War II, he has said that three planes equipped with modern missiles could do more damage than was caused by 2,700 planes in the invasion of Normandy. What is the French reaction to this threat?"

Answer: I am surprised that this statement was not noticed before because it was a most unfortunate remark. It helps to explain why Britain, France, the Low Countries and all our European Allies want peace with Russia at almost any decent price.

These buffer countries were almost destroyed in World War II by conventional bombing. They have not yet recovered. Naturally, if three atomic planes can devastate them in the way Ike foresees, they want no war.

I think that Eisenhower would be wise to avoid the question of the effect of World War III bombing over Europe in his forthcoming speeches.

This year, Michigan State will face two foes never encountered previously on the girdiron—Iowa and Texas Christian.

In his first professional fight, Joe Louis knocked out Jack Kracken in the first round at Chicago. The date was July 4, 1934.

Cobra Venom a Pain Reliever

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

WHO would believe that the venom of one of the deadliest snakes, the cobra, could be used by doctors to relieve pain? Yet, when properly used, this poison may be more effective than narcotics derived from opium in reducing pain.

Cobra venom has certain advantages over these drugs for pain that is severe and prolonged from chronic afflictions.

Effect Builds Up

The first injections of the venom do not have any relieving effect. But as injections are given over weeks of time, the effect builds up, so that finally they only have to be given about every two or three days. If small doses are taken daily until this point is reached, the otherwise deadly poison is not dangerous to man.

Of course, such a highly toxic drug should be given only under the careful direction of a physician, and may prove injurious if the treatment is not watched closely.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

Sometimes, even a physician may be unable to relieve pain until he has made a diagnosis of the disease and determined the cause of the pain. However, he will always try to relieve severe pain when he considers it safe to do so.

In certain chronic and prolonged diseases, it may be necessary to check the pain even before treating its cause. This can occur in neurological disorders where there is severe pressure on certain nerves. It may also occur in certain types of cancer and migraine.

Especially in so-called "incurable" diseases, effective pain relief may give the doctor a better chance to try new and advanced treatments and drugs which may prove helpful in specific cases.

Addiction Possible

Drugs derived from opium, such as morphine, have long been used as pain relievers. However, there is always the problem that a patient may develop an addiction to these narcotic drugs. As the disease progresses, higher and higher doses have to be given, because the person becomes accustomed to the usual dosage.

Tar Hollow Women's Camp Readied For Homemakers

Schedule Set
For July 17-22

Women's Camp at Tar Hollow has been scheduled for July 17, 18, 19.

The program has been arranged to provide a worthwhile time for women desiring to take advantage of a camp week-end at the Ross-Hocking camping area. Total fee is $7.

Women from the following seven counties will participate: Pike, Ross, Pickaway, Athens, Hocking, Vinton and Fairfield.

Theme for the program this year is "Open The Door To The Outdoors." Some of the available activities are campfire, candlelight ceremonies, vespers, outdoor Sunday Service, nature instruction, swimming and other miscellaneous recreation, lamp-making, basketry and water coloring.

Any homemaker interested can contact the county extension office, basement of Circleville postoffice, for additional information and application blanks. Preliminary reservations for camp, full or part time, must be made by July 1.

25th Anniversary Observed By Mr., Mrs. Long

Mr. and Mrs. John Long of Ashville Route 1 observed their 25th wedding anniversary Wednesday evening with a buffet supper. Mr. and Mrs. Long were married June 17, 1928, in Columbus.

Guests attending the supper were Mrs. Zelma Chrysinger and Leo Morrison of Circleville; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Heffner, their grandson, Joe Cavalier, and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Heffner of Cedar Hill; Mr. and Mrs. John Heffner of South Bloomfield; and Mr. and Mrs. Al Vitek and Mr. and Mrs. John Stetelton of Columbus.

The guests presented a chincilla service to the honored couple. The wedding cake that centered the table was a gift of Mrs. Vitek.

Patriotic Women To Hold Tea

Mrs. Donald H. Watt is serving as organizing president for the central Ohio meeting of Patriotic Women of America Inc., which will hold a tea at 2 p.m. Wednesday in Seneca Hotel, Columbus.

Objective of the society is to make itself an active factor in the progress of patriotic education by promoting the teaching of fundamental principles of American citizenship, study of constitutional government and understanding of contemporary history and to direct public attention to the rights of Americans as embodied in the Constitution.

The Ohio chapter was organized in 1947, and membership has expanded to the states of Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey, Illinois, Massachusetts and District of Columbia.

Let's Eat Out But . . .

Cases of food poisoning as an aftermath of picnics and community meals have been reported this season, according to the United States Department of Agriculture.

The mistaken belief that, once food is cooked, it will keep indefinitely at warm temperatures, seems to be responsible for many outbreaks.

You are cautioned that when cooked food must wait, it must be kept chilled or very hot—never at warm in-between temperatures. Warm temperatures create favorable conditions for growth of food spoilage organisms.

Foods which cause food poisoning often do not show signs of spoilage in taste, odor or appearance.

These foods include soft custards, cream-filled pastries or cakes, cooked salad dressing, stuffed eggs or egg salads and all cooked meats, poultry and fish.

Pickaway County 4-H Activities

Future Farmers

Future Farmers of Monroe donated $25 to Berger hospital as its community project. Carolyn Shell and Miriam and Vonnie Bach, representing the club, decided the money shall be used to purchase basins for the new wing of the hospital. The club name will be engraved on the basins.

The hospital superintendent invited the 21 members of the club to visit the new wing when it is completed.

Barbara Stoer and Bob List were selected as the two outstanding leaders in the county.

Sew and Sew

Walnut Township Sew and Sew 4-H Club met with 29 members answering roll call by naming a stitch used in sewing. Plans for an all-day meeting to be held in the home of Mrs. Glick were discussed.

Refreshments were served by Julie Kinsel, Beverly Swoyer and Sylvia, Beverly and Martha Sherman.

Flying Farmers

Flying Farmers of Muhlenberg held their regular meeting in the home of Margaret Reid. Thirteen members and six parents were present. Demonstrations were conducted, showing how to make blankets for dairy animals, how to show animals and how to clip them.

An exchange student, a guest in the Reid home, answered questions. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Reid.

Let's Sew

Let's Sew 4-H Club met Thursday for a safety program. Members answered roll call by giving a safety precaution. A film on safety was shown and a quiz followed. Girls completed the 4-H accident check sheet. Clothing for needy children was brought to the meeting. The next meeting will be held at 1:30 p.m. Thursday.

Busy Bodies

South Bloomfield Busy Bodies 4-H Club meeting opened with the club pledge. Plans were made to make and sell cookies on June 30. A family picnic will be held July 19 in Gold Cliff Park.

Girls worked on their sewing projects and refreshments were served by Donna Lee Riser. Next meeting will be held at 7 p.m. Thursday.

Miss Stout Hosts Berger Guild 23

Members of Berger hospital Guild 23 met Friday evening in the home of Miss Ruth Stout with Miss Peggy Parks assisting the hostess. During the business meeting, further plans for a dinner-bridge to be held July 16 in Pickaway Arms were discussed.

Jolly Stitchers

Jackson Jolly Stitchers opened their meeting by singing the National Anthem, led by Yvonne Gibson. Roll call was answered by naming a safety hint. Joan List led the members in the safety program.

Zoe Dell Riggan was selected to represent the club in the health contest.

Junior Jolly Stitchers

Members of the Jackson Junior Jolly Stitchers 4-H Club, accompanied by Mrs. Ben Walker and Mrs. Clark Maughmer, Wednesday made a tour of places of interest in Circleville.

The group visited the Coca Cola Bottling Co. and the Pickaway Dairy before going to Ted Lewis Park for a picnic, lunch and a recreation period. Following the picnic, the group toured Winona Canning Co., the Pickaway County Jail and Dean's Potato Chip plant.

Members making the tour were Joy Maughmer, Barbara Diffendal, Donna Jean Walker, Virginia Hatfield, Martha Pontious, Shirley McNeal, Linda Allen, Joan McNeal and Carol Sue Maughmer, a guest.

Bake and Burn

Members of the Bake and Burn 4-H Club met in the home of the leader, Mrs. Paul Teegardin. Mrs. Teegardin showed the girls how to make an angel food cake and cup custard.

Each girl will bake an angel food cake for the next meeting. Cakes will be judged by Mrs. William Duval.

During the business meeting, conducted by Judy Bowers, each girl reported on the cake she made for the cake sale. The sale netted $20.50. A tour of the University and Marmon kitchens will be made Wednesday.

Shallow Hoeing For Weed Control

Cultivation and weed control are timely occupations for home vegetable gardeners.

Eugene Wittmeyer, extension horticulturist, said cultivation should be shallow. It should be deep enough to control weeds, but not so deep that it destroys feeder roots of the crop. Many feeder roots of tomatoes, potatoes and sweet corn are in the top two or three inches of the soil.

Many home vegetable gardeners hope weed killers will reduce the work of cultivation with the hoe. However, 2,4-D has no place in home gardens. Beans, tomatoes, peppers and most other vegetables are injured by it.

Probably the only satisfactory weed killer in home gardens is Stoddard solvent. It may be used in weeding carrots and parsnips. It probably is too late, however, except for late-planted carrots.

Stoddard's solvent spray should be applied only once during the first through fourth week after emergence of crop seedlings. Gardeners should avoid crop spraying as much as possible.

The hoe probably is still the best weed control in home gardens.

Bruce Barnes Has Sixth Birthday

Mrs. Robert Barnes honored her son, Bruce, on his sixth birthday Thursday with an all boy cowboy and Indian party. Games were played and refreshments were served.

Winter or Summer —

SOMETHING'S ALWAYS SELLING!

People Keep Buying All Summer Long!

PLENTY OF CUSTOMERS! In an average week during the summer, 94% of all families are not on vacation—they're at home!

THEY NEED THINGS! For their vacation trips... for weekends... or for just plain living—and in summertime folks live better than ever in many ways!

OPPORTUNITY KNOCKS every day of every week—June through August—if you'll simply promote the products and appeals that sell in summer... from fashions to outside furniture... from apples to air conditioners... from special car checkups to savings on winter furs or fuels.

BUSINESS CAN BOOM if you sell to all the folks who can possibly buy—by advertising in the medium that folks never stop needing.

People Keep Reading Newspapers All Summer Long!

NO SUMMER REPLACEMENT for the Newspaper! People keep buying the paper and reading it—as much in July as in January! See the chart below. It shows how a year's total of weekday newspaper circulation is divided by each month of the year...

JUST ABOUT EVERYBODY reads the newspaper... almost every day. Day or night, at home, in bus, or train, or car. A quick headline or full story... in pictures and words that can't be doubted or denied.

INSIST on advertising in the medium that reaches all your customers all summer long!

The newspaper is always "first with the most"

CINCINNATI (P)—The Cincinnati Redlegs lost to Philadelphia and Robin Roberts 10-3 Friday night to put them 17 games behind league-leading Milwaukee.

The loss Friday night handed Roberts his 11th triumph against four losses. The Redlegs kicked in with three errors, two coming consecutively and enabling Mel Clark to make the complete circuit of the bases on a single in the seventh inning.

Ken Raffensberger served 'em up and ducked for five innings before he was relieved by Bob Kelly, the first of three Cincinnati relief chockers.

Ted Kluszewski's 19th homer, a tremendous wallop into the 23rd row of the bleachers, accounted for a Cincinnati run in the sixth.

Police Chief Lauds Salvation Army For Down-Outer Efforts

Merriman Asks Full Backing In Fund Drive

Organization Close To Law Officers In Case Work

Lauding the Salvation Army as a "splendid outfit I've had the opportunity to watch at close hand," Police Chief Elmer Merriman urged the public Saturday to "go all-out" in behalf of the organization's fund campaign.

The Salvation Army's drive for contributions opens in Pickaway County Monday. Main weight of the campaign will be centered on that day, but donations will still be added to the fund total if they come later in the week.

Merriman, describing the Army as "one of my real favorites," explained his job frequently brings him into allied efforts with the famed organization.

"I've watched them struggle with the difficult cases ever so many times," he said, "and I know some of the truly magnificent things they've done here in Circleville without seeking public credit for it."

I DON'T KNOW of any other organization that deserves more support from the public. Somehow or other, the Salvation Army seems to be more than just a big and efficient charitable group. Its splendid record, and above all the way it has worked its way into the hearts of countless individuals, has made the Army almost a part of a community's daily life.

Circleville will never know all that it owes to the Salvation Army, because the Army rarely talks about its accomplishments for the down-and-outs. All of us, however, can look about and listen to the great things done by the organization—the little things that are great because very frequently they pull people back from despair and give them a chance again."

The Salvation Army is replacing its policy of collections at intervals with a fund campaign. Spokesmen for the organization said they feel the public will prefer the new arrangement.

Simultaneously with an appeal for contributions when the drive opens Monday, the organization revealed a new system of service committees which will bring the Army into closer touch with the smaller communities.

District Birdlife Authority Notes Data To Aid Bird Watchers

(Editor's Note: Coming to the aid of many local residents who notice Pickaway County birds and wonder as to their name and habits, Kathryn R. Bower, local birdlife authority, has listed notes on some of the birds seen most frequently in this part of the country.)

The Cardinal should be of particular interest to the amateur bird watchers in Ohio.

This bright red friend is the state's official bird.

The Cardinal is of the royalty. He wears the highest crest of all, and with his scarlet cloak and black bib is dressed fit for any coronation. He will stay all winter too, and feed on seeds that he cracks with his short, stout red beak.

When the snow is deep, a handful of nut meats or grain will keep him close to brighten your days.

SUBSTITUTE heavenly blue for the red of the Cardinal, add a few black and white bars on wings and tail, and you have an other beautiful bird: The Blue Jay. His crest is not so high and his bib not so prominent.

His beak is shiny black and he also cracks nuts and acorns, but sad to say he often runs that sharp bill through other birds' eggs and carries them off like a marshmallow on a stick!

He is a robber and clearly acknowledges it with his scream of "thief!" "thief!". But then poes say that, "Beauty is its own excuse for being."

Many people mistakenly call the Blue Jay the Bus Bird. They look nothing alike, except they are both mainly blue. The Blue Bird is sparrow size and has a rusty red breast like the Robin. Its soft voice is almost a "coo" and one must listen intently to hear it.

If you see a flash of red-orange and black in and out of your fruit trees it probably is the Baltimore Oriole as he gets his meal of bark lice and Tent caterpillars. Lady Baltimore does all the weaving of her hammock nest high in the top of the tallest elm tree.

When it is finished it is so deep that she can not be seen in it at all. In the winter when trees are bare, you may see several of them swinging and waiting for the Orioles' to come back and add a new one. These birds are sometimes called the Golden Robin.

THE FLICKER is another of our common birds and belongs to the woodpecker family. He lives in rotten tree trunks, but spends most of his time on the ground stirring up nests and catching them with his sticky "fly paper" tongue.

His body is barred almost like the Plymouth Rock hen. He wears a little bright red kerchief on the back of his head. His wings and tail are lined with golden yellow and a white patch shows above his tail when in flight.

The male also wears black side whiskers. He reminds one of a boy masquerading as a girl at a Haloween party.

If you live on the edge of town you will see another bird with yellow under-coloring and a showy black bib. His upper body is streaky brownish shade to aid in hiding. This is the Meadow Lark. Built on the ground, his nest has a roof over it and a side entrance.

When he is happy he stands very tall on a fence post, stretches his neck and gives out a clear whistle which says, Hear, Cheer, Spring of the Year." He lives almost entirely on insects and is probably the most valuable of all birds to the male.

Many people mistakenly call the Blue Jay the Bus Bird. They look nothing alike, except they are both mainly blue. The Blue Bird is sparrow size and has a rusty red breast like the Robin. Its soft voice is almost a "coo" and one must listen intently to hear it.

If you see a flash of red-orange and black in and out of your fruit trees it probably is the Baltimore Oriole as he gets his meal of bark lice and Tent caterpillars. Lady Baltimore does all the weaving of her hammock nest high in the top of the tallest elm tree.

When it is finished it is so deep that she can not be seen in it at all. In the winter when trees are bare, you may see several of them swinging and waiting for the Orioles' to come back and add a new one. These birds are sometimes called the Golden Robin.

THE FLICKER is another of our common birds and belongs to the woodpecker family. He lives in rotten tree trunks, but spends most of his time on the ground stirring up nests and catching them with his sticky "fly paper" tongue.

His body is barred almost like the Plymouth Rock hen. He wears a little bright red kerchief on the back of his head. His wings and tail are lined with golden yellow and a white patch shows above his tail when in flight.

The male also wears black side whiskers. He reminds one of a boy masquerading as a girl at a Haloween party.

If you live on the edge of town you will see another bird with yellow under-coloring and a showy black bib. His upper body is streaky brownish shade to aid in hiding. This is the Meadow Lark. Built on the ground, his nest has a roof over it and a side entrance.

When he is happy he stands very tall on a fence post, stretches his neck and gives out a clear whistle which says, Hear, Cheer, Spring of the Year." He lives almost entirely on insects and is probably the most valuable of all birds to the male.

He is shiny black and he also cracks nuts and acorns, but sad to say he often runs that sharp bill through other birds' eggs and carries them off like a marshmallow on a stick!

He is a robber and clearly acknowledges it with his scream of "thief!" "thief!". But then poes say that, "Beauty is its own excuse for being."

SOVIET TANKS ROLL into Potsdamerplatz in East Berlin to quell rioting by East Berliners angry over increased work schedules. East and west zones adjoin at Potsdamerplatz. The Russians threw two divisions and 300 tanks at the estimated 100,000 rioters.

South Korea Wants Release Of 9,000 Allied-Held POWs

SEOUL (AP) — South Korea's acting Prime Minister has demanded that Gen. Mark Clark immediately release some 9,000 anti-Communist Korean prisoners still in Allied stockades because "we must liberate them all."

And the UN commander today released a scathing letter accusing South Korea's fiery President Syngman Rhee of breaking a

"personal commitment" not to take unilateral action with ROK forces in the UN Command.

Clark called the release of almost 26,000 anti-Red prisoners on Rhee's orders this week "precipitous and shocking."

Rhee and his cabinet met this morning to study a stinging rebuke from President Eisenhower and government sources said the Cabinet

net might discuss Rhee's answer. Eisenhower accused Rhee of violating UN Command authority in ordering the prisoners freed.

Fifty-five more anti-Communist Koreans fled from three UN prison camps Friday night and early Saturday. The UN Prisoner Command said nine were recaptured.

ONE SOUTH Korean was killed and one U. S. soldier was wounded at a camp near Pusan.

South Korea's Acting Prime Minister Yung Tai Pyun, in a letter dated Thursday, demanded that Clark turn over all anti-Red prisoners still in Allied hands.

"We must liberate them all—preferably . . . in a manner least likely to cause trouble," he said. And Pyun warned:

"I should like to call your attention to the mutual need of refraining from saying or doing anything that might likely provoke passions of the Korean masses, which once let loose may easily go out of control. If there is any talk to be done, it had better be managed quietly, we believe."

Pyun's letter, written after the mass escape of about 25,000 prisoners early Thursday, said: "We regret very much that several scores of prisoners were killed and injured by United Nations guards."

About 26,000 anti-Red prisoners fled from seven UN camps Thursday night and Friday night. South Korean guards, acting on orders of President Rhee, turned their backs as the prisoners escaped.

There was no indication whether Reed would yield. Reed, oldest Republican in continuous service in the House, has never said he would refuse to bring the tax extension to a vote. Nor has he said when or where he would do so.

GOP leaders apparently have made little headway in their efforts to persuade the determined New Yorker.

Eisenhower urged a six-months extension of the unpopular tax in a special message to Congress more than a month ago. The ways and means committee concluded hearings one week ago today.

Reed has insisted the tax prevents business growth, and hence revenue which would be raised by letting it die on schedule.

Chances Fade For New Cut In Expansion Idea

It looks as though the area marked off for annexation north of Circleville, first major step in the city's expansion program, will keep its present boundaries after all.

The large area was trimmed considerably after the City Zoning and Planning Commission first placed a tentative chart of the section before City Council. Then, at Council's last meeting, Councilman Joe Brink called for a meeting to consider another reduction.

Members of Council were to meet with the commission at the planning body's regular meeting Friday night. However, a spokesman for the commission said only two of the lawmakers attended, and that they indicated they didn't intend to press as individuals for a second revision of the annexation chart.

Roughly, the area marked for annexation extends northward from the corporation line to Dunkel road, and stretches laterally from the city's eastern limits to Route 23.

Council has already given the green light for preparation of the annexation petition, to be circulated among the property owners who would be affected.

Western Drama Beginning Today

An action-packed western thriller by Norman A. Fox begins today on editorial page of The Circleville Herald.

Entitled "Ghostly Hoofbeats," the western drama unfolds on the Bootjack frontier where Cole Manning rides through danger and gunsmoke to a strange, surprising fate.

Is Manning the rider of the phantom horse with the ghostly hoofbeats? You'll enjoy finding out as you follow the new serial beginning today on page four.

Greek Leaves U.S.; Plans Proper Return

COLUMBUS (AP)—A 25-year-old Greek prepared today to leave the United States voluntarily so he might return legally to the American wife he married five months ago after a courtship by mail.

Alex Kallimanis, who served with United Nations forces in Korea, began corresponding with the former Barbara Beaver after seeing her picture—owned by a GI buddy in St. Louis. Readings of 100 were general over most of Texas. Top mark was 107 at Laredo.

He went to the Beaver home in Bremen, near Lancaster, to visit after his discharge from service. He obtained a visitor's permit and took a job in Lancaster. In March he and Barbara were married.

When his permit was about to expire, he applied for an extension. But he was told he violated the law when he took a job in this country. At a hearing in Federal Court Friday, Kallimanis formally requested permission to leave the country voluntarily. If this is granted, his wife will ask permission to bring him to this country on a non-quota basis as the husband of an American citizen.

Unrest Continues In Soviet Sector

BERLIN (AP)—East Germany's leading Communist newspaper admitted today the Soviet zone is rocked by strikes and disorders and a U. S. general declared the Russians are trying to "Tamp down dynamite."

Maj. Gen. Thomas Timberman, American commander in Red-encircled West Berlin, said the Russians had brought in the major elements of two armored divisions, about 25,000 men of the 1st and 14th Divisions, to throttle rebellious East Berlin.

"These two divisions can tamp the place down for awhile," he told a news conference.

"I am certain that these Russians gunners with their tank muzzles staring down our throats know themselves that this is no solution to the overall problem," he added.

Communists Demand POWs' Recapture, Rhee Subjugation

MUNSAN (AP)—The Reds today angrily told the Allies if the UN wants a truce it must control South Korea's rebellious government and recapture 26,000 anti-Red war prisoners freed by President Syngman Rhee.

Although the Communists protested violently at Rhee's arbitrary action, they did not rule out an armistice.

But their terms appeared near impossible—the Korean prisoners have melted into the countryside with Rhee's blessing and the split between South Korea and the UN Command apparently was growing deeper.

South Korea's acting prime minister, Y. T. Pyun, in a letter dated Thursday, demanded that Clark turn over all anti-Red prisoners still in Allied hands.

"We must liberate them all—preferably . . . in a manner least likely to cause trouble," he said. And Pyun warned:

"I should like to call your attention to the mutual need of refraining from saying or doing anything that might likely provoke passions of the Korean masses, which once let loose may easily go out of control."

At almost the same time, Clark made public a letter written the same day blistering Rhee, and accusing him of breaking recent assurances that South Korea would make no arbitrary moves without consulting Clark.

Rhee's action has cracked the unity of the Allies and the Reds made the most of it.

The Communists listed their demands in a letter handed to the Allied truce delegation in a 25-minute meeting at Panmunjom. Addressed directly to Clark, it ended: "We are awaiting the reply of your side."

The Allied delegates made no answer and the meeting recessed indefinitely at Communist request, subject to call by either side.

In Washington, U. S. officials had no comment, but said they expected a strong protest.

IN THEIR letter, the Reds warned ominously, "Your side must . . .

Pair To Face Murder Charges

KENTON (AP)—The Hardin County prosecutor said Friday night the grand jury will be reconvened soon to consider first-degree murder charges against James Tatum, 31, and Lawrence Sawyer, 25, both of Kenton.

Tatum and Sawyer pleaded innocent Friday when arraigned before Mayor Lester Whilford in the fatal shooting June 9 of Richard Burchiel, 24, of Kenton. The pair was bound to the grand jury.

Buchiel was shot twice near a Kenton cafe. Rosemary Austin, 18-year-old Kenton girl held as a material witness, said the men had argued over her affections.

bear the serious responsibility for this incident."

The letter asked:

"Is the United Nations Command able to control the South Korean government and army?

"If not, does the armistice in Korea include the Syngman Rhee clique?

"If it is not included, what assurance is there for the implementation of the armistice agreement on the part of South Korea?

"If it is included, then your side must be responsible for recovering immediately all the 25,952 prisoners of war who are at liberty... and your side must give assurance that similar incidents will not occur in the future."

THE REDS repeated their charges that the Allies must have known beforehand of the release and therefore "connived" in the escapes.

The letter was signed by Kim Il Sung, North Korean Premier, and Red Chinese Gen. Peng Teh-huai.

An Allied spokesman said North Korean Gen. Nam Il read the letter with a flicker of tenseness, but no other sign of anger was displayed in the conference hut.

Later, Dr. Karl Hong Ki, a South Korean government spokesman, denounced the letter as "false accusation directed at the United States to cause a split between the U. S. and the Republic of Korea."

CLARK'S LETTER to Rhee was short but direct. He wrote that he could "not at this time estimate the ultimate consequences" of Rhee's "precipitous and shocking" act.

Clark said Rhee had personally assured both him and the U. S. ambassador to Korea, Ellis O. Briggs, that he would not take any such action until "full and frank discussion with me" but "your actions today (Thursday) have clearly abrogated these assurances."

'Spring Reverie' Is Message For 1st EUB Church

"Spring Time Reverie" is Mrs. Verneal Thomas' organ prelude to open unified worship service Sunday in First Evangelical United Brethren church at 9:30 a.m. Other organ numbers are "A Prayer at Twilight" and "Melody."

The congregation will sing "All Hail the Power of Jesus Name" and "Faith of Our Fathers."

Fidelis Chorus, under the direction of Jim Brown, will sing their processional, "Holy, Holy, Holy." Special music will be furnished by the Chorus.

The Rev. Donald Mitchell, pastor of Circleville Presbyterian church, will be guest minister. He will speak from the theme "God of Our Fathers," taking the text from Deut. 4:1-3 and Romans 10.

Following the sermon, special recognition will be made to the fathers by Church School Superintendent Edwin Richardson. The Kappa Beta Class will present each father with a gift. Home Builders Class will recognize the oldest father and Merry Makers Class the youngest father. Also, the most-represented church father, as selected by the young people, will be honored.

Recessional hymn following benediction will be "God Be With You."

Church school will meet immediately following the worship service to study a lesson "The Practice of Christian Liberty."

Bible Words To Live By

John 8:12—"Again Jesus spoke to them, saying, 'I am the light of the world; he who follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life.'

This statement of Jesus is to me a source of quiet confidence. No one wants to walk in darkness. In my boyhood days I reasoned: I am not afraid of darkness, but I do not want to walk in it lest I encounter some unseen danger.

Moreover, my desire was to go forward surely, confidently. Therefore, I wanted light.

But light and darkness with Jesus are figures of speech for significant spiritual realities. Even as a boy I knew this. And in the realm of the spirit, also, I wanted to walk in the light.

When, therefore, the words, "I am the light of the world," came as "addressed" to me, I was ready to listen. And when Jesus said, "He who follows me will not walk in darkness," I was ready to follow. In following, He became real to me, and through the years I have grown increasingly that He is Himself the Light of life and the Light of the world.

Episcopal Parish To Meet Rector

St. Philip's Episcopal church will have a special parish family service at 10:30 a.m. Sunday.

There will be a celebration of holy communion and an address by The Venerable David R. Thornberry, Archdeacon of the Diocese of Southern Ohio.

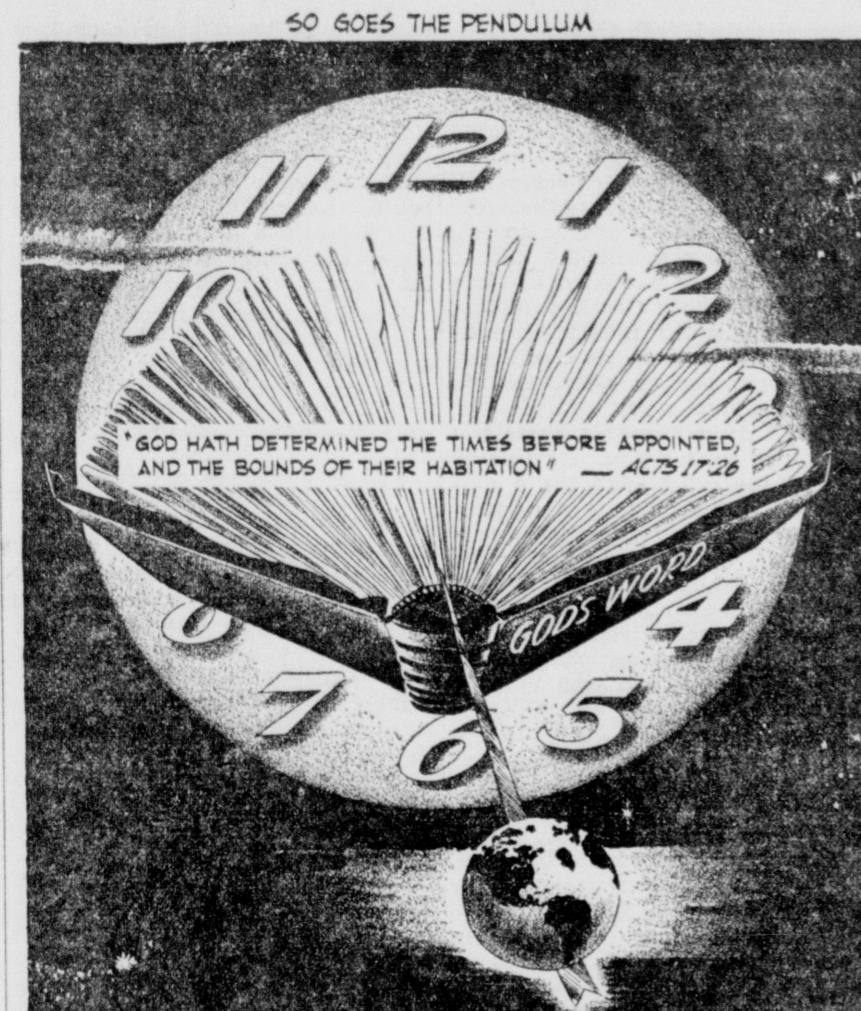

Archdeacon Thornberry will speak concerning the relationship of a parish to its minister. The Rev. Jack C. Bennett, new rector for St. Philip's, will assist in the service.

All members of the parish family of St. Philip's have been contacted by postal card and are urged to be present.

Vacation School To Give Program

This Sunday morning at the regular 10:15 a.m. worship program, Trinity Lutheran church's daily vacation Bible school will direct the service. Each of the five departments will have a special song for the service.

Samples of the children's work will be on display for viewing by members of the congregation.

Church Briefs

Sunday school and church will be held at 2 p.m. Sunday in Christ Lutheran church, Lick Run.

Midweek Bible Study Group of Trinity Lutheran church will continue its study of the Book of Acts at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday. A new film strip will be shown.

Junior choir of Trinity Lutheran church will rehearse for communion service at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in the church auditorium.

Trinity Lutheran church senior choir will practice at 7:30 p.m. Friday.

Home Builders Class of First EUB church will meet at 2:30 p.m. Sunday at the church for a picnic at Mount City Park.

Youth Fellowship of First EUB church will meet at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the service center.

Prayer and Bible study will be observed at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in First EUB church. The church choir will rehearse at 7:45 p.m.

Daniel Example Is Basis For Methodist Rite

The Rev. Robert Weaver will preach the third in a series of sermons on Old Testament characters Sunday in First Methodist church. He will preach on "Daniel, A Man of Influence." William Vigore, ministerial student, will assist in the service.

In the development of the sermon, Daniel will be shown as a man of moral courage, a man who taught by his victory over temptation and not by his stained life.

His early life will be lifted up as one of profound moral courage and conviction. He will be shown as a man who was willing to stand for his principles and loyalty to his faith.

The pattern of envy causing men to plot against him will be shown as parallel to the pattern causing men to undermine men of conviction and faith today.

The old jest that the lions were not able to eat Daniel because he was all backbone has a great deal of truth in it. Even had the lions eaten Daniel, the story would have been just as great in depicting the strength of a man who believed utterly in God.

A trio, composed of Mrs. Harold Defenbaugh; Mrs. Larry Graham and Miss Beverly Reid, will sing "I Waited For The Lord." Mr. S. Ervin Leist has chosen "Andante," "Meditation" and "Prayer" for her organ numbers for the service.

Junior High Fellowship will meet at 6 p.m. Sunday for election of officers for the new year.

BEGINNING

Sunday and continuing through July 1, the Church of Christ will conduct a series of gospel services at 8 p.m. nightly in a tent located just off Lancaster Pike on Lover's Lane. Speaker for this series of meetings will be Fred E. Dennis (above), widely-known evangelist from Marietta. Each sermon will be Biblical, many of the lessons illustrated with chart diagrams. Congregational singing of psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs will characterize each service.

Rev. Herbst Due To Serve At Greensburg

The Rev. James A. Herbst, pastor of Circleville's Calvary Evangelical United Brethren church for the last seven years, has been assigned from the Southeastern EUB conference to the Greensburg EUB church in the Eastern conference.

The Rev. Mr. Herbst is expected to take over his new duties on July 26, delivering his last sermon here on July 19. He and his family are to move during the week of July 20.

Greensburg's 300-member church is in a small community located in the Akron-Massillon-Canton area.

Mrs. Herbst is a native of Akron. Replacement for the Rev. Mr. Herbst in the Circleville church is not expected until late August, following the Southeastern EUB conference. A supply minister will serve here after the Rev. Mr. Herbst leaves.

The Circleville minister received the appointment this week during the Eastern conference meeting. He returned to Circleville Friday night following the meeting.

These Days

One of the advantages of not writing about every story immediately is that one can wait for the froth to blow away and for the substance to assert itself. The chance remark by President Eisenhower at Dartmouth College caused more excitement than was due it.

No one has burned any books and, if the President indicated that someone had, he was unfortunately in error, although I must say that it would cause little damage to civilization if the pornographic miseries that are being sold to our children on newsstands and in candy stores were burned. Also some of the mystery stories which substitute filthy expressions for skillful narrative could well be burned with little loss to anyone.

But the issue at hand has nothing to do with such crudities. It apparently deals with the millions of dollars that the American taxpayer spends on American libraries scattered over the world as part of our program of psychological warfare.

These libraries are sheer propaganda. That is the sole reason for which Congress appropriated money for them. The design was that Europeans and Asiatics should be given an opportunity to read the best that the United States produces in the various fields of literature.

Richard Humphrey, Acting Director of the Information Service Centers of the Department of State, addressed the following letter to Senator Joseph McCarthy which I quote in full:

"In response to Mr. Schine's request of today to state in a simple sentence the purpose of the Overseas Library Program, perhaps the following will suit the committee's needs—the Overseas Library Program exists to reflect American objectives, values, the nature of American institutions and life and to utilize the books and related material to advance the ideas of America in the struggle against Communism."

This is a succinct statement of fact. It clearly defines the overseas libraries as agencies of propaganda. That is what they should be. But how is it possible to fight Communism and the Russians by spending millions of American dollars to set forth the Russian point of view in opposition to the United States and the American point of view?

Secretary of State John Foster Dulles put it clearly when he said:

"My own feeling is that books which are of an essentially propaganda nature, designed to sell Communism and be persuasive in support of Communism, should not be books on which we should expend the rather meager funds which are designed for quite a contrary purpose."

It is true that the McCarthy Committee uncovered the use that the Communists were making of the American overseas libraries, but neither Senator McCarthy nor his committee could remove one book or even a pamphlet from the shelves of these libraries. They had no authority in the matter. The order to remove came from President Eisenhower's State Department as the order to purchase the Communist books came from Dean Acheson's State Department.

POOR RICH MEN

LAST YEAR, ABBOTT and Costello, famous comedians, earned $1.75 million from radio, television and personal appearances. Their incomes have averaged near that point for a dozen years. Yet today they are behind in payments to Uncle Sam to the extent of $50,000: From every dollar the pair earns, the government takes 94 per cent. If they are paid $1,000 for a personal appearance, the take-home pay is $60.

While their position in the entertainment field calls for rather lavish living, this is not the cause of their misfortune. They pay $100,000 a year to the boys who write their gags. An agent collects 10 per cent, accountants and tax experts carry off $75,000 for their services. There is travel, entertainment, charity and all the other expenses which come with fame. The net result is two actors with no money.

Having earned $25 million during their joint career, Uncle Sam is now looking over their shoulders, watching for the next payment. There must be a moral to this story. Perhaps it is that the guy who first suggested income taxes—it was Karl Marx—was no dummy, from the politicians' standpoint.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

news behind the news

Editor's Note: Every Saturday this veteran Washington correspondent devotes his column to answering readers' questions of general interest on national and international policies and personal questions. Questions may be sent direct to Ray Tucker at 6308 Hillcrest Place, Chevy Chase, Md.

WASHINGTON, June 20 — "What is wrong with this man, Charlie Wilson?" inquires T. F. of Lansing, Mich. "From all I read in the newspaper, he can't get along with the press, Congress or his own military staff. Why doesn't Eisenhower get rid of this trouble-maker?"

Answer: Stories about Secretary Wilson's inability to get along with the Pentagon newspapermen, with members of Congress and with the so-called military experts are slightly exaggerated.

Every new Cabinet member has these rather unimportant difficulties, and especially a man with Wilson's cutting personality and record of achievement at General Motors. He is a bold individualist surrounded by compromising men.

Naturally, Wilson becomes impatient with them, as he would have with a GM man who promised 3,000,000 cars a year, when Wilson knew that the firm could turn out only 1,000,000.

I feel that Wilson has made many mistakes, largely because he has no talent for public or political relations. If he had had a smart publicity adviser at the Pentagon, he would have made a better impression on and off Capitol Hill. He has been badly advised with respect to his appearances at press conferences, and congressional committee hearings.

But the American people, for their own sake, should withhold judgment on the Secretary of Defense. No man in the United States knows how to produce planes, tanks, trucks, ships etc., in volume and promptly, as he does. Given a chance, he may roll out cold war weapons as fast as he produced cars in private industry.

If he is hounded out of office by political critics, and that is always a possibility, I doubt if any American industrialist would try to take his place. Eisenhower would then have to appoint some political hack or broken-down military figure for the most important job at Washington.

IKE'S STATEMENT — "Twice, in recent speeches," notes G. F. of Woonsocket, R. I., "President Eisenhower has made a disturbing statement. In measuring our current military strength as against that of World War II, he has said that three planes equipped with modern missiles could do more damage than was caused by 2,700 planes in the invasion of Normandy. What is the French reaction to this threat?"

Answer: I am surprised that this statement was not noticed before because it was a most unfortunate remark. It helps to explain why Britain, France, the Low Countries and all our European Allies want peace with Russia at almost any decent price.

These buffer countries were almost destroyed in World War II by conventional bombing. They have not yet recovered. Naturally, if three atomic planes can devastate them in the way Ike foresees, they want no war. I think that Eisenhower would be wise to avoid the question of the effect of World War III bombing over Europe in his forthcoming speeches.

Cobra Venom a Pain Reliever

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

WHO would believe that the venom of one of the deadliest snakes, the cobra, could be used by doctors to relieve pain? Yet, when properly used, this poison may be more effective than narcotics derived from opium in reducing pain.

Unlike rattlesnake venom, which acts on the blood, cobra venom has its effect on the nervous system. This is why it is a valuable analgesic (pain reliever), but only in the hands of a physician who knows the reason for the pain.

Effect Builds Up

The first injections of the venom do not have any relieving effect. But as injections are given over weeks of time, the effect builds up, so that finally they only have to be given about every two or three days. If small doses are taken daily until this point is reached, the otherwise deadly venom is not dangerous to man.

Of course, such a highly toxic drug should be given only under the careful direction of a physician, and may prove injurious if the treatment is not watched closely.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

W. M.: My child was stung recently last summer by bees. She had a severe reaction and almost died from these stings. Is there any way she can be immunized against them?

Answer: Recent tests have shown that an extract made from dead bees, and given in increasing dosages at various intervals, will immunize a child against bee stings.

Flowers put his drink on the sideboard. "Look, son, Flint Manning cast a mighty broad shadow in his day."

Manning said, "Do you think you have to tell me? I'm twenty-eight years old, Senator. All my life I've walked in that shadow."

"Well," Manning said, "you've got it back."

Flowers picked a cigar from the sideboard and absently gnawed the end from it. His round face, schooled by bughouse poker and the greater game he'd played since turning politician, showed nothing.

Flowers moved at once to the sideboard and said, "Some sherry? But you'd be a whisky man, of course." He turned his back and busied himself with the bottles, making a great clatter. "I thought you'd telegraph from Mannington. Or was your first case too far for the wires? You wound it up, I reckon, or you wouldn't be here."

He took the drink Flowers professed and dropped into a big leather chair. He lifted his glass. The senator did likewise. "Here's to the memory of Flint Manning, God rest him," he said. "Do you know, you favor Flint a lot. Same big-beaked face and smoky eyes. Same loose and ready way of carrying yourself."

Very carefully Cole Manning set his glass on the marble-topped table, and just as carefully he unbuttoned the badge and laid it down. Gaslight gave to the badge a dull yellow sheen. "I'm grateful to you for getting me appointed marshal," Manning said. "But I'm resigning. You see, Senator, people were right when they figured I wasn't big enough to fill Flint Manning's boots. I failed."

"Failed?" Flowers ejaculated. Manning's lips thinned. "Are you surprised? Admit the truth, Senator! You pulled the wires when I asked you for the appointment, but you had your doubts, didn't you? Just like the newspapers; they thought it quite a joke for the son of an old peace officer to try tracking the one law-breaker who'd escaped Flint Manning. It made good copy, I reckon,

He is a veteran of World War II, enlisting in 1942, promoted to corporal, received his commission as 2d lieutenant, and served with the Third Army. He was United States delegate to the sessions of the United Nations General Assembly. He was elected to the Senate at a special election to fill an unexpired term in 1946, defeated for re-election in 1948, but was re-elected in 1952. What is his name?

2—He is one of the 1952 crop of successful young Hollywood actors. He is a Yale man, a Navy veteran, and was "discovered" at the Pasadena Community Playhouse. He made such an easy switch from a killer in Silver City to FEI man in The Atomic City, that he was handed more choice jobs in Stalag 17 and Pleasure Island. Recognize him? The name, please.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

Lillian Hellman, playwright; Errol Flynn, screen actor, and Glenn Cartell, one-time golf champion, have birthdays today.

On Sunday, June 21, Rockwell Kent, artist; Donald C. Peattie, nature writer; Judy Holliday and Dorothy Stickney, actresses, and Ed Lopat, Yankee pitcher, have birthdays.

YOUR FUTURE

The future looks promising, with success attainable. A sensitive and highly intellectual personality is likely to develop as today's child matures.

For Sunday, June 21: A favorable time for all personal relationships. Today's child probably will have courage and ambition.

HOW'D YOU MAKE OUT?

1. Hillaire Germain Edgard Degas.

2. Arion, poet-musician.

Tar Hollow Women's Camp Readied For Homemakers

Schedule Set
For July 17-22

Women's Camp at Tar Hollow has been scheduled for July 17, 18, 19.

The program has been arranged to provide a worthwhile time for women desiring to take advantage of a camp week-end at the Ross-Hocking camping area. Total fee is $7.

Women from the following seven counties will participate: Pike, Ross, Pickaway, Athens, Hocking, Vinton and Fairfield..

The theme for the program this year is "Open The Door To The Outdoors." Some of the available activities are campfire, candlelight ceremonies, vespers, outdoor Sunday Service, nature instruction, swimming and other miscellaneous recreation, lamp-making, basketry and water coloring.

Any homemaker interested can contact the county extension office, basement of Circleville postoffice, for additional information and application blanks. Preliminary reservations for camp, full or part time, must be made by July 1.

25th Anniversary Observed By Mr., Mrs. Long

Mr. and Mrs. John Long of Ashville Route 1 observed their 25th wedding anniversary Wednesday evening with a buffet supper. Mr. and Mrs. Long were married June 17, 1928, in Columbus.

Guests attending the supper were Mrs. Zelma Chrysinger and Leo Morrison of Circleville; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Heffner, their grandson, Joe Cavalier, and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Heffner of Cedar Hill; Mr. and Mrs. John Heffner of South Bloomfield; and Mr. and Mrs. Al Vitek and Mr. and Mrs. John Stebelton of Columbus.

The guests presented a china service to the honored couple. The wedding cake that centered the table was a gift of Mrs. Vitek.

Patriotic Women To Hold Tea

Mrs. Donald H. Watt is serving as organizing president for the central Ohio meeting of Patriotic Women of America Inc., which will hold a tea at 2 p.m. Wednesday in Seneca Hotel, Columbus.

Objective of the society is to make itself an active factor in the progress of patriotic education by promoting the teaching of fundamental principles of American citizenship, study of constitutional government and understanding of contemporary history and to direct public attention to the rights of Americans as embodied in the Constitution.

The Ohio chapter was organized in 1947, and membership has expanded to the states of Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey, Illinois, Massachusetts and District of Columbia.

Let's Eat Out But . . .

Cases of food poisoning as an aftermath of picnics and community meals have been reported this season, according to the United States Department of Agriculture.

The mistaken belief that, once food is cooked, it will keep indefinitely at warm temperatures, seems to be responsible for many outbreaks.

You are cautioned that when cooked food must wait, it must be kept chilled or very hot—never at warm-in-between temperatures. Warm temperatures create favorable conditions for growth of food poiling organisms.

Foods which cause food poisoning often do not show signs of spoilage in taste, odor or appearance.

These foods include soft custards, cream-filled pastries or cakes, cooked salad dressing, stuffed eggs or egg salads and all cooked meats, poultry and fish.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Brown of 212 Pearl St. had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Grover Branson of Oskaloosa, Ia., and Miss Masei Birkhead of Annapolis, Md.

Mrs. Joseph Rennet of Memphis, Tenn., is a guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. W. T. Ulm of N. Court St.

Mrs. Roselyn Dreisbach White and son, Larry, are making their home in La Jolla, Calif.

Mrs. Eugene Gildersleeve of Circleville Route 4 will be hostess to members of Pleasant View EUB Ladies' Aid at 2 p.m. Wednesday.

South Bloomfield Busy Bodies 4-H Club meeting opened with the club pledge. Plans were made to make and sell cookies on June 30. A family picnic will be held July 19 in Gold Cliff Park.

Girls worked on their sewing projects and refreshments were served by Donna Lee Riser. Next

Pickaway County 4-H Activities

FUTURE FARMERS

Future Farmers of Monroe donated $25 to Berger hospital as its community project. Carolyn Shell and Miriam and Vonna Bach, representing the club, decided the money shall be used to purchase basins for the new wing of the hospital. The club name will be engraved on the basins.

The hospital superintendent invited the 21 members of the club to visit the new wing when it is completed.

Barbara Stoer and Bob List were selected as the two outstanding leaders in the county.

SEW AND SEW

Walnut Township Sew and Sew 4-H Club met with 29 members answering roll call by naming a stitch used in sewing. Plans for an all-day meeting to be held in the home of Mrs. Glick were discussed.

Refreshments were served by Julie Kinsel, Beverly Swoyer and Sylvia, Beverly and Martha Sherman.

FLYING FARMERS

Flying Farmers of Muhlenberg held their regular meeting in the home of Margaret Reid. Thirteen members and six parents were present. Demonstrations were conducted, showing how to make blankets for dairy animals, how to show animals and how to clip them.

An exchange student, a guest in the Reid home, answered questions. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Reid.

LET'S SEW

Let's Sew 4-H Club met Thursday for a safety program. Members answered roll call by giving a safety precaution. A film on safety was shown and a quiz followed. Girls completed the 4-H accident check sheet. Clothing for needy children was brought to the meeting. The next meeting will be held at 1:30 p.m. Thursday.

BUSY BODIES

South Bloomfield Busy Bodies 4-H Club meeting opened with the club pledge. Plans were made to make and sell cookies on June 30. A family picnic will be held July 19 in Gold Cliff Park.

Girls worked on their sewing projects and refreshments were served by Donna Lee Riser. Next

Miss Stout Hosts Berger Guild 23

Members of Berger hospital Guild 23 met Friday evening in the school building with the SSS group serving refreshments.

JOLLY STITCHERS

Jackson Jolly Stitchers opened their meeting by singing the National Anthem, led by Yvonne Gibson. Roll call was answered by naming a safety hint. Joan List led the members in the safety program.

Zoe Dell Riggan was selected to represent the club in the health contest.

JUNIOR JOLLY STITCHERS

Members of the Jackson Junior Jolly Stitchers 4-H Club, accompanied by Mrs. Ben Walker and Mrs. Clark Maughmer, Wednesday made a tour of places of interest in Circleville.

The group visited the Coca Cola Bottling Co. and the Pickaway Dairy before going to Ted Lewis Park for a picnic, lunch and a recreation period. Following the picnic, the group toured Winona Canning Co., the Pickaway County Jail and Dean's Potato Chip plant.

Members making the tour were Joy Maughmer, Barbara Diffendal, Donna Jean Walker, Virginia Hatfield, Martha Pontious, Shirley McNeal, Linda Allen, Joan McNeal and Carol Sue Maughmer, a guest.

BAKE AND BURN

Members of the Bake and Burn 4-H Club met in the home of the leader, Mrs. Paul Teegardin. Mrs. Teegardin showed the girls how to

Shallow Hoeing For Weed Control

Cultivation and weed control are timely occupations for home vegetable gardeners.

Eugene Wittmeyer, extension horticulturist, said cultivation should be shallow. It should be deep enough to control weeds, but not so deep that it destroys feeder roots of the crop. Many feeder roots of tomatoes, potatoes and sweet corn are in the top two or three inches of the soil.

Many home vegetable gardeners hope weed killers will reduce the work of cultivation with the hoe. However, 2,4-D has no place in home gardens. Beans, tomatoes, peppers and most other vegetables are injured by it.

Probably the only satisfactory weed killer in home gardens is Stoddard solvent. It may be used in weeding carrots and parsnips. It will be too late, however, except for late-planted carrots.

Stoddard's solvent spray should be applied only once during the first through fourth week after emergence of crop seedlings. Gardeners should avoid crop spraying as much as possible.

The hoe probably is still the best weed control in home gardens.

Bruce Barnes Has Sixth Birthday

Mrs. Robert Barnes honored her son, Bruce, on his sixth birthday Thursday with an all boy cowboy and Indian party. Games were played and refreshments were served.

Winter or Summer —

SOMETHING'S ALWAYS SELLING!

People Keep Buying
All Summer Long!

PLenty of CUSTOMERS! In an average week during the summer, 94% of all families are not on vacation—they're at home!

THEY NEED THINGS! For their vacation trips...for weekends...or for just plain living—and in summertime folks live better than ever in many ways!

OPPORTUNITY KNOCKS every day of every week—June through August—if you'll simply promote the products and appeals that sell in summer...from fashions to outside furniture...from apples to air conditioners...from special car checkups to savings on winter furs or fuels.

BUSINESS CAN BOOM if you sell to all the folks who can possibly buy—by advertising in the medium that folks never stop needing.

People Keep Reading Newspapers
All Summer Long!

NO SUMMER REPLACEMENT for the Newspaper! People keep buying the paper and reading it—as much in July as in January! See the chart below. It shows how a year's total of weekday newspaper circulation is divided by each month of the year...

JUST ABOUT EVERYBODY reads the newspaper...almost every day. Day or night, at home, in bus, or train, or car. A quick headline or full story...in pictures and words that can't be doubted or denied.

INSIST on advertising in the medium that reaches all your customers all summer long!

The newspaper is always "first with the most"

Sokolsky'sThese Days

If these libraries are to show the best in American life, must they include works of men who denounce their own country and its government in favor of another country?

For instance, how many Americans would be willing to say that Howard Fast represents the best in American life? Is it necessary for the United States to propagandize Howard Fast?

Somebody invents a slogan, such as witch-hunting, and immediately it becomes a propagandistic cover-all, to be used where it does not fit. For instance, why is it not right in a period of a cold war in Europe and a hot war in Asia for this country to inquire whether the enemy is employing a Fifth Column in the United States?

It is known that this enemy has been employing native Fifth Columns in all other countries. Why not in the United States? Why should we be the exception?

Actually we do know that Russia has not only used Americans for anti-American propaganda in the United States but has also used Americans as spies—and that is how they got the atom bomb.

Therefore, eternal, everlasting vigilance requires a constant scrutiny of the enemy's conduct within the United States.

What we need to get excited about is how the enemy diabolically got into the affairs of the State Department so that he could put the books he favors and that favor him on the shelves of American propaganda overseas.

Indianapolis Takes Lead

By The Associated Press

Indianapolis rallied in the ninth inning for a 2-1 victory over Louisville Friday night and took over sole possession of first place in the American Association.

The Toledo Sox, who had shared the lead with the Indians, dropped to third as Kansas City moved back into runnerup spot with a 5-4 win over the Sox, also engineered with a ninth-inning comeback.

Police Chief Lauds Salvation Army For Down-Outer Efforts

Merriman Asks Full Backing In Fund Drive

Organization Close To Law Officers In Case Work

Lauding the Salvation Army as a "splendid outfit I've had the opportunity to watch at close hand," Police Chief Elmer Merriman urged the public Saturday to "go all-out" in behalf of the organization's fund campaign.

The Salvation Army's drive for contributions opens in Pickaway County Monday. Main weight of the campaign will be centered on that day, but donations will still be added to the fund total if they come later in the week.

Merriman, describing the Army as "one of my real favorites," explained his job frequently brings him into allied efforts with the famed organization.

"I've watched them struggle with the difficult cases ever so many times," he said, "and I know some of the truly magnificent things they've done here in Circleville without seeking public credit for it."

I DON'T KNOW of any other organization that deserves more support from the public. Somehow or other, the Salvation Army seems to be more than just a big and efficient charitable group. Its splendid record, and above all the way it has worked its way into the hearts of countless individuals, has made the Army almost a part of a community's daily life.

Circleville will never know all that it owes to the Salvation Army, because the Army rarely talks about its accomplishments for the down-and-outs. All of us, however, can look about and listen to the great things done by the organization—the little things that are great because very frequently they pull people back from despair and give them a chance again."

The Salvation Army is replacing its policy of collections at intervals with a fund campaign. Spokesmen for the organization said they feel the public will prefer the new arrangement.

Simultaneously with an appeal for contributions when the drive opens Monday, the organization revealed a new system of service committees which will bring the Army into closer touch with the smaller communities.

District Birdlife Authority Notes Data To Aid Bird Watchers

(Editor's Note: Coming to the aid of many local residents who notice Pickaway County birds and wonder as to their name and habits, Kathryn R. Bower, local birdlife authority, has listed notes on some of the birds seen most frequently in this part of the country.)

The Cardinal should be of particular interest to the amateur bird watchers in Ohio.

This bright red friend is the state's official bird.

The Cardinal is of the royalty. He wears the highest crest of all, and with his scarlet cloak and black bib is dressed fit for any coronation. He will stay all winter too, and feed on weed seeds that he cracks with his short, stout red beak.

When the snow is deep, a handout of nut meats or grain will keep him close to brighten your days.

SUBSTITUTE heavenly blue for the red of the Cardinal, add a few black and white bars on wings and tail, and you have an other beautiful bird: The Blue Jay. His crest is not so high and his bib not so prominent.

His beak is shiny black and also cracks nuts and acorns, but sad to say he often runs that sharp bill through other birds' eggs and carries them off like a marshmallow on a stick!

He is a robber and clearly acknowledges it with his scream of "thief! thief!" But then poets say that, "Beauty is its own excuse for being."

Many people mistakenly call the Blue Jay the Bue Bird. They look nothing alike, except they are both mainly blue. The Blue Bird is sparrow size and has a rusty red breast like the Robin. Its soft voice is almost a "coo" and one must listen intently to hear it.

If you see a flash of red-orange and black in and out of your fruit trees it probably is the Baltimore Oriole as he gets his meal of bark lice and Tent caterpillars. Lady Baltimore does all the weaving of her hammock nest high in the top of the tallest elm tree.

When it is finished it is so deep that she can not be seen in it at all. In the winter when trees are bare, you may see several of them swinging and waiting for the Orioles' to come back and add a new one. These birds are sometimes called the Golden Robin.

THE FLICKER is another of our common birds and belongs to the woodpecker family. He lives in rotten tree trunks, but spends most of his time on the ground stirring up ants nests and catching them with his sticky "fly paper" tongue.

His body is barred almost like the Plymouth Rock hen. He wears a little bright red kerchief on the back of his head. His wings and tail are lined with golden yellow and a white patch shows above his tail when in flight.

The male also wears black side whiskers. He reminds one of a boy masquerading as a girl at a Halloween party.

If you live on the edge of town you will see another bird with yellow under-coloring and a showy black bib. His upper body is streaky brownish shade to aid in hiding. This is the Meadow Lark. Built on the ground, his nest has a roof over it and a side entrance.

When he is happy he stands very tall on a fence post, stretches his neck and gives out a clear whistle which says, Hear, Cheer, Spring of the Year." He lives almost entirely on insects and is probably the most valuable of all birds to the farmer.

You should go for a ride in the country, take note of the birds sitting on the fences. You will see quite a few black ones with red shoulder patches. These are the male Red Winged Black Birds.

He is a robber and clearly acknowledges it with his scream of "thief! thief!" But then poets say that, "Beauty is its own excuse for being."

Hay Making Is Easier With ROTO BALER

- Big Capacity Turns Out Fast Tonnage
- One-Man Operated — Saves Labor
- Bale Is Twine-Wrapped — No Knotting
- Moderate Price — Many Farmers Own Several

ROLLED bales wrap in and seal the peak feeding value that makes beef or milk. They resist moisture and rain. Twine-wrapped, they're free from injurious wire. They're bales that can take rough handling, too. They elevate and load easily and store compactly . . . without buckling or breaking.

Remember, ROLLED bales are made only by the ROTO-BALER, built by Allis-Chalmers. Let us demonstrate.
